How did you work out the correct order?

Why do you think it is important to put historical events in order?

Types of Evidence

Historians are like detectives because they use SOURCES and clues left by people of the past. Evidence can be discovered in one of 3 different ways.

Written

Physical

Spoken

Label the following images with which of these three categories it fits in:

--	--	--

--	--	--

Historians use different terms for different types of evidence. These are w _____ evidence for things like _____, s _____ evidence for things such as _____ and p _____ evidence for _____.
